32. Terms and Conditions

PEI Office of Immigration reviews applications for the Provincial Nominee Program based upon the eligibility requirements and selection factors set out in the guide and application. You must meet these eligibility requirements to be considered for nomination. To determine if an Applicant meets the requirements of the Program, carefully review the information in the guide and application prior to submission.

An Applicant's satisfaction of the eligibility criteria does not, under any circumstances, guarantee nomination.

Priority will be given, in accordance to PEI Office of Immigration's mandate from the Government of Canada. Under the Co-operation Agreement with the Federal Government, the Province has "the sole and non-transferable responsibility to assess and nominate candidates who, in Prince Edward Island's determination: (a) will benefit the economic development of Prince Edward Island; and, (b) have a strong likelihood of becoming economically established in Prince Edward Island."

Any misrepresentation, false statement, and/or concealment of information on the part of the Applicant, or anyone acting on behalf of the Applicant, including any inconsistencies between an Applicant's registration information and application, may, at the sole discretion of PEI Office of Immigration, result in the rejection and termination of the application, forfeiture of the application fee, cancellation of an Applicant's nomination (if applicable), and ineligibility of the Applicant to register with or apply to the PEI PNP for two (2) years from the date of rejection or cancellation.

Misrepresentations may occur and be identified by PEI Office of Immigration at any point throughout the application process. PEI Office of Immigration may take any of the above noted recourse steps immediately upon oral notice of the misrepresentation to the Applicant, or anyone acting on behalf of the Applicant. Such notice shall be confirmed in writing to the Applicant, or to the party acting on behalf of the Applicant, as applicable, within 10 days of issuing oral notice.

An Applicant is deemed to have full knowledge of the contents of its application, notwithstanding whether such application is submitted by the Applicant or by a party acting on behalf of the Applicant. For clarity, any misrepresentation, false statement, and/or concealment of information by anyone acting on behalf of an Applicant shall warrant the same treatment and be subject to the same consequences as a situation where the Applicant has personally submitted their application. Recourse for breaches committed by anyone acting on behalf of an Applicant, and any consequences to an Applicant resulting from same, shall be limited to direct personal actions and claims as between the Applicant and the party acting on their behalf.

I declare the information provided is complete and correct. I have read and accept the Terms and Conditions. I acknowledge and agree that PEI Office of Immigration may process completed applications in any order, regardless of date of submission, having regard to the Province's "sole and non-transferable responsibility to assess and nominate candidates who, in Prince Edward Island's determination: (a) will benefit the economic development of Prince Edward Island; and, (b) have a strong likelihood of becoming economically established in Prince Edward Island."
